May Hashem Console the Leeder family among those that mourn for Zion and Jerusalem.

Thank you: to the friends of Shira and Asher Leeder for sponsoring Seudah Shlishit this week. As a Tzeitchem l'shalom to Shira and Asher and in memory of Asher's mother, Rebbetzin Evelyn Leeder, z'l.

Shabbat Afternoon Shiur: Rabbi Segal will give a Shabbat afternoon shiur at 7:00pm on "The Halachot of Tevilat Keilim and Religious Messages underlying the practice." This topic is relevant to upcoming Parshiot as the biblical source for the practice stems from the instructions given to the Israelites on how the utensils captured from the Midianites had to be handled before use. Amongst the practical subjects to be discussed are: 1) Materials from which utensils are made, that require tevilat keilim 2) The relevancy of how utensils are used with food 3) The relevancy of the size and portability of utensils 4) Electric Appliances 5) Disposable Utensils 6) Ownership of Utensils 7) The halacha regarding eating from utensils not toveled, as a guest in the home of another. 8) How one immerses utensils.

The Nine Days: We are currently observing the nine days which will last until the morning of July 23rd. During this period, the following restrictions apply:

1. Weddings, parties and other festive events are not scheduled nor participated in.
2. Haircutting is also restricted during this period.
3. No meat may be eaten nor wine consumed, except on Shabbat.
4. Recreational (as opposed to instructional) swimming and bathing for pleasure (as opposed to hygiene) should not take place.
5. No laundry should be washed except children's clothing. (This restriction is lifted on the evening of July 22nd)

Tisha B'Av: This year, since the ninth day of Av falls out on Shabbat, the fast day is observed on the tenth day of Av and begins Saturday evening (July 21st). Since the fast is postponed, there are unique aspects of the observances of Tisha B'Av this year. Please refer to the back of the Kishrei for a detailed summary of these unique aspects as well as a full Tisha B'Av schedule. On Sunday morning, there will be one Shacharit. After Shacharit, Rabbi Roy Rosenbaum will be commentating on selected kinot. When davening is completed on Sunday morning, we will be showing a Simon Wiesenthal film called "Liberation". This film documents the compelling stories of the Jews of Europe—their tragedy, courage, resistance and survival—stories you will never forget. On Sunday evening before Mincha, we will be screening a documentary called "V'nikdashti" in which survivors relate their stories about rebuilding life after the Holocaust. A similar video will be shown between Mincha and Maariv.

From the Rabbi: Tisha B'Av and Shabbat

This year, since the ninth day of Av falls out on Shabbat, the fast day is observed on the tenth day of Av and begins Saturday evening at the times listed below. Since the fast is postponed, almost all of the restrictions of Tisha B'Av do not apply to Shabbat with the exception of the restriction on marital relations. (This restriction does not apply when Friday evening is the night of Mikvah immersion.) The fact that the end of Shabbat coincides with the beginning of Tisha B'Av presents some logistical issues and results in changes from the usual observance of Motzei Shabbat and Tisha B'Av. We scheduled Mincha early on Shabbat so there is enough time to return home and have a full meal before the fast begins. THE FAST BEGINS BEFORE SUNSET, BEFORE SHABBAT IS OVER. We scheduled Maariv almost a half hour after Shabbat ends to give an opportunity to change shoes and drive to shul. Please look carefully through the times and procedures listed below. The restrictions of Tisha B'Av itself are essentially the same this year as every other year, except, since Tisha B'Av observance is postponed to the 10th day of Av, pregnant and nursing mothers who would find it difficult to fast are exempt from fasting. May our proper observance of Tisha B'Av merit for us to see the Beit Hamikdash rebuilt speedily in our day.

Saturday July 21

Shabbat Mincha 5:00PM

Suedah Shlishiet (at home)

The typical Seudah Mafseket (Hard Boiled Eggs, Sitting on the ground etc) before Tisha B'Av is not observed on Shabbat. One can even consume meat and drink wine at the meal before the Fast.

Eating/Drinking completed by 8:10 PM

Note: The fast begins before Shabbat is over.

Shabbat Ends 9:00PM

One should wait until after this time to don non-leather shoes. Before doing so one should recite "Baruch HaMavdil bein Kodesh L'chol"--"Blessed be He who separates between the holy and the profane."

Maariv Eicha & Kinot 9:30PM

Havdallah: After Kinot, the blessing over fire is said at this time, the blessing over the cup and the last paragraph of Havdalah is postponed until after the fast Sunday night. The blessing over spices is not recited at all.

Sunday July 22

Morning Service 8:00 AM

Kinot introduced and commented on by Rabbi Roy Rosenbaum

Video Presentation "Liberation"

Video Presentation "V'nikdashiti" 7:00PM

Mincha 7:45 PM

Video Presentation

Maariv 8:40PM

Fast Ends 8:47 PM

Havdallah

After the fast is over, before eating, Havdallah is recited, beginning with the blessing over the cup and followed by the final paragraph of Havdallah. The blessing over fire is recited Saturday night, and the blessing over the spices is omitted entirely. For those not completing the fast due to health reasons, Havdallah should be recited before eating on Tisha B'Av using a beverage other than wine or grape juice.

Post Tisha B'Av

Restrictions on laundry, swimming, haircuts etc. are lifted Sunday night, July 22 after the fast is over at 8:47PM. Consuming meat and wine, celebrations and live music etc. continue until Monday morning July 23, 2018. There is no requirement to wait until Chatzot on Monday morning as is usually the case when Tisha B'Av is observed on the ninth day of Av.

This synagogue welcomes, values and includes people of all abilities.
